CHELTENHAM SCHOOL DISTRICT
ELEMENTARY CODE OF CONDUCT EXPECTATIONS

The Cheltenham School District strives to create positive school climates where students, parents/guardians and all staff work together to respectfully maintain an orderly and safe environment focused on teaching and learning. Students have a right to a disciplinary process that is consistent, fair, and equitable. Working collaboratively with all stakeholders we uphold discipline practices that promote a positive school learning environment.

Cheltenham School District believes that positive behavior is a developmental process, and effective discipline strategies should meet students’ varied behavioral and developmental needs with tiered responses and interventions. A continuum of instructional strategies and disciplinary responses supports teaching and learning, fosters positive behavior, and reflects a restorative discipline philosophy. Restorative practices afford students opportunities to learn from their mistakes, correct any harm that results from their behavior, and restore relationships that are disrupted by their conduct. Our school discipline practices are designed to engage students in the classroom so that students may become successful learners.

Student Responsibilities
It is the responsibility of students and staff to create and maintain a safe and productive learning environment. Rules, consequences, and rewards are posted and discussed in each classroom. Children are expected to follow classroom and school rules at all times. If a child repeatedly violates established rules and disrupts the learning environment, parents/guardians are expected to meet with the teacher, sponsor of the activity, and/or principal to find an effective way to assist the child in behavior management. Your cooperation and support of the school’s educational program is essential in providing a successful learning experience for your child.

Staff Responsibilities
All school staff members play an important role in building strong relationships with students and investing their success. Staff members will do the following:
- Establish and teach clear expectations for behavior and refer to them throughout the year.
- Take an instructional approach to discipline,
- Acknowledge and reward positive and appropriate conduct by students.
Administer discipline rules consistently, fairly, and equitably.

Supports and Interventions
The Cheltenham School District is committed to provide equitable supports and interventions as part of our school’s culture, climate, and expectations. The following are examples of supports and interventions that are currently in use in our schools. This is not a full or complete list.

We encourage students to demonstrate good behaviors throughout the year by using positive reinforcement. Schools spend a great deal of energy praising and rewarding good behaviors. We are trying to create a learning community where it “pays” to do what is right. Student rewards are established by individual schools and personnel.

Restorative Practices
Restorative Practices will be utilized to proactively create a sense of, and commitment to, community in order to prevent and address conflict and wrongdoing as follows:

- Involve and empower the affected community; however participation is always voluntary.
- Challenge the mindsets of all involved to examine their roles, attitudes, beliefs and behaviors specifically around wrongdoing.
- Utilize techniques to proactively build community, such as recognizing and celebrating desirable community actions and behaviors, and establishing community expectations.
- Focus on the harms of wrongdoing more than on the rule or law that was broken.
- Encourage collaboration and reintegration, rather than punishment and isolation.
- Anticipate and address situations that may challenge a school community, such as physical conflict or re-entry of members into the community who have been apart for disciplinary reasons.
Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS)

PBIS or SWPBIS (School-Wide Positive Behavioral intervention and Supports) is a systemic approach for creating safer and more effective schools by building a better environment through positive disciplinary practices. Positive behavior support is an application of a behaviorally-based systems approach to enhance the capacity of schools, families, and communities to design effective environments that improve the link between research-validated practices and the environments in which teaching and learning occurs. Attention is focused on creating and sustaining Tier 1 supports (universal), Tier 2 supports (targeted group), and Tier 3 supports (individual) systems of support that improve lifestyle results (personal, health, social, family, work, recreation) for all children and youth by making targeted behaviors less effective, efficient, and relevant, and desired behavior more functional.

Positive Action

Positive Action is a systematic educational program that promotes an intrinsic interest in learning and encourages cooperation among students. It works by teaching and reinforcing the intuitive philosophy that you feel good about yourself when you do positive actions. The effects of the program range from increased academic achievement to dramatic reductions in problem behaviors. The essence of the program is to emphasize those actions that promote a healthy and positive cycle.

Disciplinary Expectations and Consequences
Elementary Schools

The following chart is a guide detailing the behaviors students are expected to exhibit and the consequences students can expect when they make poor choices regarding their behavior. It is not meant to be inclusive of all possible kinds of misbehavior; rather, it is a guideline that represents the more common and serious types of misbehavior that may be experienced in a school environment. Students are reminded that school rules are in effect, and students are subject to discipline: (1) while at school; (2) at school-sponsored events, trips, or activities, whether on or away from school property; (3) while traveling to/from school, school-sponsored events, trips, or activities on a vehicle owned, leased, or under the control of the District; and (4) as otherwise permitted by law.

The severity of any consequence will be proportional to the severity of the offense, the age of the student, the student’s prior disciplinary record, special circumstances about the incident, including whether the student was an aggressor or victim, as well as any applicable laws or regulations, including, but not limited to, those related to the discipline of students with disabilities.

Students who have been suspended from school will be required, prior to returning to their previous class schedule, to meet with a designated school official to discuss academic and behavioral expectations upon return to school, resources available to support students, the consequences of future noncompliance with Board Policy and/or school rules, and the number of hours, if any, of counseling required prior to the student’s return to his/her regular class schedule.

At the discretion of the Superintendent or designee, which may include the Assistant Superintendent, building principal or assistant principal, students may be afforded the opportunity to participate in restorative practices in lieu of harsher disciplinary consequences.
