School Community
Cheltenham School District serves a population of nearly 37,000 residents in a nine square mile area. Like the Township, the School District is highly diverse with an ethnic student body population consisting of 53% African American, 35% Caucasian, 7% Asian, 4% Hispanic, and 1% other races. The District operates four K–4 elementary schools, one 5–6 elementary school, one 7–8 middle school, and one high school, serving approximately 4,700 students.

General Information
Cheltenham High School is a four-year public school that emphasizes college preparation. All students pursue an academic program that is supplemented by many elective courses in fine arts, music, practical arts and humanities. Elective programs in all subject areas are designed to meet the diverse needs of the student body. Classes are generally classified into one of the following areas: Advanced Placement, Honors, or Enriched. Career and technology education is offered at the Eastern Center, where students can pursue one of fourteen programs. Dual enrollment opportunities are offered at Arcadia University, Manor College, and Penn State Abington.

Grades, Weight, and Ranking
GPA for all students is on a 4.0 scale and includes all subjects except courses graded on a Pass-Fail basis. Class rank is based on the weighted GPA.
