

Cultural Proficiency in Action:

Strategies on Parenting a Culturally Proficient Child

Monday, December 4 , 2017 at 7:00

Join UPG to enhance your cultural competency in the face of the increasing negative interactions CSD students are experiencing.

- Barbara Moore Williams will moderate a panel discussion of Cedarbrook administrators and students.
- Hear what role the Cultural Proficiency Administrators at each school play.
- Learn how to have constructive conversations with your child about how to manage through these difficult experiences and how to be an ally to classmates.

This information is relevant to all families!

Barbara Moore Williams is the CEO and founder of BMW & Associates, an educational consultant company working in school districts and charter schools in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and surrounding states. Her work includes sessions with student groups to support their learning about issues of race and culture and how it affects schooling and achievement leading to their become advocates for change in their schools.

Cheltenham School District Administration Building

2000 Ashbourne Road | Elkins Park, PA

For additional information, please email upg@upgcheltenham.org